

CONTENTS

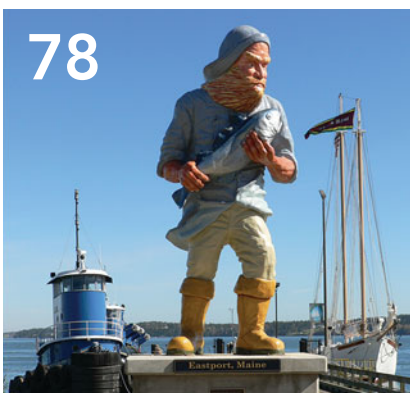

JUNE / JULY 2007 ★ VOLUME 20 ★ NUMBER 3 ★ ISSUE 95

MAINE
BOATS, HOMES & HARBORS

DEPARTMENTS

- 5 PUBLISHER'S LETTER
- 6 BOATYARD DOG®
Scout: one accomplished dog
- 8 LETTERS
We welcome your comments,
and we print them too!
- 15 IN THE LEE OF THE BOATHOUSE
Recycling with a vengeance, and an acronymological report
BY PETER H. SPECTRE
- 21 AWANADJO ALMANACK
The blue and green days of a
Maine summer
BY ROB MCCALL
- 27 POSTCARDS IN TIME
The Most Fascinating Person I Never Met
BY PETER H. SPECTRE
- 28 LETTER FROM MATINICUS
Boarding School, Mountain Rescue,
and the Barefoot Savage of Prep Spaz
BY EVA MURRAY
- 33 SALTWATER FOODWAYS
Storage Strategies for Small Boats
BY SANDRA L. OLIVER
- 37 MY BOAT, MY HARBOR
A Practical Man Downeast
BY LESLIE BOWMAN

78

Features

- 42 Winter Harbor Knockabouts: the Fortunate Fleet
After 100 years, all the original Winter Harbor knockabouts, the oldest intact racing class in the country, are still competing.
BY VICKI GOLDSTEIN
- 50 Outfoxed
Foxes are common in Maine, but getting even a glimpse of one is not as easy as it would seem.
BY RUTH ANN HILL | PHOTOGRAPHS BY DAVE KYNOR
- 56 Whirling in the Wind
Ray Bradley's whirligigs fulfill the artist's aspirations and the wind's desire. BY CARL LITTLE
- 67 The Prudent Mariner
Once you're on board and under way, there's a right way and a wrong of doing things. Some call that superstitious thinking.
Others aren't so sure. BY JAN ADKINS
- 72 Willa Cather's Cottage, the North Head Bakery, and Other Pleasures of Grand Manan Island
The serendipitous discovery of the small summer place where a famous American novelist wrote some of her best works.
BY LETITIA BALDWIN | PHOTOGRAPHS BY FRED FIELD
- 78 Eastport: The Edginess of the Edge
Despite the rigors of her history, Eastport today is like a rugged but grand Victorian lady, still very vital and always ready for the next dance, but not with just any partner.
BY ROB MCCALL | PHOTOGRAPHS BY TAD GOODALE
- 86 Careening *Summertime
Built in the old style, a pinky schooner has its planks repaired in the old way—by waiting for the tide to go out.
BY WAYNE TOBIASSON
- 92 A Grand Tour, Indoors and Out
The venerable Camden House and Garden Tour enters its sixth decade.
BY LYNETTE L. WALTHER

The Magazine of the Coast

On the cover: The Winter Harbor knockabout Mystery.
Photograph by Alison Langley.

42

92

50

72

DEPARTMENTS continued

61 REVIEW

Captains Courageous
by Rudyard Kipling

REVIEWED BY CARL LITTLE

62 REVIEW

Working the Sea: Misadventures, Ghost Stories, and Life Lessons from a Maine Lobster Fisherman

By Wendell Seavey

REVIEWED BY JANET MENDELSON

98 OFF THE DRAWING BOARD

Seguin 40: A Seagoing Shoal-Water Cruiser

BY ART PAINE

102 A LETTER FROM HOME

"Stahpubusnhollanuffmit!"

BY ROBERT ZUBER

126 MAINELY GOURMET

Cleonice Mediterranean Bistro, Ellsworth

BY LETITIA BALDWIN

128 GUNKHOLING WITH GIZMO

Malaga Island

BY BEN ELLISON

56

